

I think the FCC should stop protecting the rights of people who would invade the privacy of my home by making their stupid calls which interrupt my dinner or my time with my family. I also think that the FCC should insist on equal time for all political candidates and forbid Political ads on the airways and television. Time was when a station put on pornography they were fined or refused a renewal of their right to broadcast.